Souper Wrapper Supper

Abby Eith the chairperson for this committee reported all is set for October 21st from 4:30-6:30 volunteers have been called and there is an abundance of desserts to be served. PTO will set up, prepare the food and will serve. Mr. Summer will have art displays and the 4th grade will be signing some songs.

Spirit Wear

A flyer will be going home the 1st of November, sweatshirts and t-shirts will be available, along with tie dye shirts.

Old Business

- ❖ In the past when supplies have been needed, a member of the committee has used their personal Sam's club membership to purchase the items and then PTO reimbursed them. Sam's club has put a stop to this procedure, so therefore a motion was proposed for Dowd's PTO to purchase a business membership at the cost of $35.00 to be used by Dowd's school.

A motion was made for approval by Edna and seconded by Kim

- ❖ Mrs. Reinhart has taken over the Veteran's day program and it will be November 11th; in the past a rose has been given to each veteran, these roses were previously purchased from floweroma for a $1.00 a piece they have since closed, Mrs. Reinhart called four different floral shops and was give the same price at each shop $2.00 for a rose and $1.00 for a carnation. It was recommended that this year PTO purchase carnations. Mrs. Reinhart would like to work on handing something out different for next year.

A motion was made by Edna for approval and seconded by Deserae
