

Guidance Update for Seniors—February 20, 2009

Local Scholarships/ Phase Two—Don't procrastinate. If you have a question on the materials, see Mr. Grady.

Have you completed your FAFSA form?

Remember, Richland County Foundation Scholarship applications are available in the library or on-line at www.richlandcountyfoundation.org

SCHOLARSHIP UDATE

MKC Investing In Our Future Scholarship—This $500 scholarship is only offered to students in MKC client school districts of which Shelby is one. Students must intend to major in architecture, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, civil engineering, structural engineering or education. Information and applications are in the library or at www.mkcinc.com/Scholarship.html. Applications and supporting materials must be received at the MKC office by March 31, 2009.

NCSC Entrepreneurship Program Scholarship—This $4,000 annual scholarship requires a student to be enrolled full time in any associate degree program at NCSC and also be enrolled in entrepreneurship classes at NCSC. Deadline for return is March 27, 2009. Application materials are available in the library.

NCSC Alumni Association Scholarship—This $500 annual scholarship is open to any student enrolling full time in any associate degree program at NCSC with a 3.0 GPA and demonstrated financial need. Deadline for return is March 27, 2009. Application materials are available in the library.

AAA School Safety Patrol Scholarship—This $1,000 scholarship is open to former school safety patrol members in a limited number of counties in Ohio. Information and applications are available in the library. Deadline is April 3, 2009.

Mansfield Men's Garden Club Scholarship—The Mansfield MGC provides funds for a $1,000 scholarship to promote post high school education in the field of horticulture. Details of acceptable areas of study are included in the info and application available in the library. Deadline is March 14, 2009.

Kingwood Herb Society Scholarship—the KHS scholarship of up to $1,500 is open to any senior who plans to pursue a career in horticulture. Deadline is March 31, 2009. Scholarship applications and info are available in the library.